

1) Limitar la búsqueda a libro o/y capítulo de libro.

The screenshot shows the Scopus Document Search interface. At the top, there is a teal header with the text "Document search" and a link "Compare sources >". Below the header, there are tabs for "Documents", "Authors", "Affiliations", and "Advanced", with "Documents" being the active tab. A "Search tips" link is also present. The search input field contains the text "stochastic differential equations" and has a "Source title" dropdown menu set to "Source title". Below the search field, there is a "Limit" section with two radio buttons: "Published" (selected) and "Added to Scopus in the last 7 days". The "Published" option has a date range of "All years" to "Present". The "Document type" dropdown menu is open, showing a list of options: "ALL", "Article or Review", "Article", "Review", "Article in Press", "Book or Book Chapter", "Book", and "Book Chapter". The "Book" option is highlighted in orange. At the bottom right, there is a "Reset form" link and a "Search Q" button. A footer link says "Learn more about how to Improve Scopus".
